CALIFORNIA DAHLIA SEEDS

HILL'S PACIFIC SPLENDOR BRAND

Direct from Southern California

The varieties listed give you the evolution of the Dahlia from the tiny singles to the giant decoratives, with their massive blooms often measuring 10 inches in diameter. This seed is grown for us by one of California's finest dahlia growers, and we do not think it can be surpassed no matter what price you pay.

Pacific Splendor, single dwarf or bedding type, grow about two feet. All colors of the rainbow. Per package, 25c.

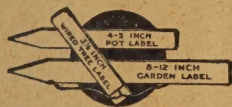

Pacific Splendor, Pom Pom strain, the small compact type. An excellent range of colors can be expected. Per package, 50c.

Pacific Splendor—Miniature Beauties. The big little dahlia of the decorative type, from seed will come almost 90 per cent double. Package (75 to 125 seeds), 65c.

Pacific Splendor—Giant Decorative type. Enormous blooms in many cases from seed that will measure up with seed that cost six times the price of this strain. Package (about 60 seeds), 75c.

Pacific Splendor—Super Giant type. This seed is saved from the giants of the dahlia family, both decorative and the best giant cactus seed parents. Package, $1.00.
